The 'Traditional Roman Catholic'-Facebook page [@tradromancatholic] does not truly stand for modesty of dress, nor does it stand for Catholicism at all. Since it contains:

1. At least 72 pictures of immodest people without any attempt at a censorship. Including a bare breasted depiction of a crazy Salome; 'transsexuals'; three pregnant 'transsexuals'; a homosexual kissing a little boy on the mouth; and sacrilegiously dressed whores.
2. Sacrilegious 'humor' purported by the page itself, and thereby not even shown to be condemned but rather to be produced by themselves.
3. Endorsement of Lefebvre to the point of calling for his eventual canonization; a demand of prayers for the departed heretic John Vennari; and other heretics called "Venerable".
4. Non-sedevacantist posts and captions. Such as a post citing John XXIII's alleged condemnation of "Sister" Faustina's devotion, as if it was a proof against it (it might be relevant that it was condemned under the reign of Antipope John XXIII, but clearly not because of his 'authority'); a quote by Lefebvre where he rejected that the Holy See could vacate for decades; many people allegedly-canonized or allegedly-beatified by the 'Vatican II'-sect called "Saint", "Blessed", or "Venerable".
5. The novus-ordites and the 'Vatican II'-dioceses called "Catholic".
6. Altar boys referred to as "our", not to claim that they're of the same organization, but at least to claim communion with them while asking prayers for them. Wonder who's the admin referring to, since there is no Mass being celebrated anywhere by nor with the help of true Catholics that we know of.
7. "KEEP CALM AND GO TO MASS" endorsing to randomly go attend Holy Mass anywhere, not only receiving Communion under particular circumstances but fully attending the service, as if you could go everywhere without any problem.
